Name of Person Requesting Review: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Address: _____
Telephone: _____
Other Party's Name: _____

Pursuant to MCL 552.517(1)(b) either party has the right to request a review in writing every 36 months and either party also has the right to request a review even if 36 months have not passed since the last review when that party presents evidence of a substantial change in circumstances as set forth in the child support formula guidelines per MCL 552.517b(9).

A support review can result in a recommendation for an increase, a decrease, or no change to the current support order obligation. Please note the results of the child support review recommendation may not be consistent with the request submitted by either party.

Grounds for Review: You Must Choose Either Option 1 or Option 2

1.) It has been more than three years (36 months) since my last review AND my case has a current support order charging. (My case is not arrears only.) If you select this option, no need to complete the remainder of this form, just sign and date.*

2.) It has been less than three years (36 months) since my last review and circumstances have substantially changed as follows:

A significant increase or decrease in income (75% or more), such as job loss, large change in pay, or modification to payer's other support obligations

Explain:

A change in custody or parenting time or changes in the physical, mental, or educational needs of a child

Explain:

Application for or receipt of public assistance or social security benefits for the payer or child

Explain:

Health care coverage becoming newly available to a party or significant changes in medical expenses of a party
